PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mrs. A. A. Metz left Saturday on a visit to relatives in Nashville.

Miss Florence McCall left Friday on a visit to friends in Guthrie.

Miss Maggie Phillips, of Providence, is the guest of friends near this city.

Mr. M. A. Mason has returned from Hot Springs much improved in health.

Miss Louise Beaumont, of Clarksville, arrived here Friday on a visit to friends.

Mrs. W. J. Withers has gone to Chicago on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. R. Y. Dudley.

Messrs. Millie and Ramsey Bradshaw, of Paducah, are visiting their cousin Wallace Kelly.

Mr. Thos. C. Underwood has accepted a position as reporter for the New Era and enters upon his duties today.

Miss Mamie Green, of Frankfort, who has been visiting Miss Mary Green, near this city, returned home Friday.

Mr. J. M. Scott, Jr., representing H. S. Dewey & Aske's paper warehouse, New York, was in the city Saturday.

Dr. Andrew Seargent was called to Crofton yesterday to attend Miss Bell Brasher, who is dangerously ill of typhoid fever.

James Cabanis and wife, of Evansville, returned home yesterday, from a visit to C. G. Layne and wife, of near this city.

Mrs. R. L. Bugg, of Lake City, Florida, is visiting friends and relatives in this city. She was formerly Miss Mabel Dodd.

Mr. Henry H. Abernathy has moved into his new house on the corner of Virginia and Nineteenth streets. It is one of the handsomest of the many modern-style cottages that have gone up this season in Hopkinsville, and is quite an addition to that very popular residence portion of the city.

The stone work on the Baptist church has been completed and with the scaffolding and trees cleared away the sixty-one-foot tower presents a very handsome and imposing appearance. The stone steps are now being put in place, which will complete Mr. Brown's contract. Forbes & Bro., who have the wood contract, have now taken charge of the work of construction.

While disrobing one night last week a lady in this city was startled to see a black face pressed against the shutters of the window. A negro man had turned the sash and was peering into the room, the lady having neglected to lower the curtain. The fellow took to his heels as soon as he was discovered. The lady was alone at the time, her husband being absent from home. It will be Hopkinsville's turn some of these days to have a first-class lynching. The women of Kentucky must be protected from insult as well as assault.

There are no less than four probable candidates for circuit judge in this city in the event Judge Grace should seek and secure a nomination for Appellate Court Judge. Those with legs in their bonnets are Judge Jao. W. McPherson, Judge John Phelps, Judge Thos. J. Morrow and Mr. C. H. Bush. Cadiz would probably supply three candidates in the persons of Col. R. A. Burnett, Hon. Jas. B. Garrett and Judge Fenton Sims, while Calloway would likely again present Judge Thos. J. Cook, who was for awhile a candidate last year.

The Bowling Green Times contains this notice of a very bright Christian county boy, a son of Mr. Thos. L. Moss, of Bennettsburg: J. McKenzie Moss, a young lawyer of Christian county, has located in this city for the practice of his profession. He has just recently been graduated from the Kent Law school, of Chicago, and comes among us exceptionally well qualified for the practice of law. He is regarded as an unusually bright young man and is a pleasing and affable gentleman who makes a good impression on all who meet him. He is a nephew of Hon. J. A. McKeezie, Minister to Peru, and is in many respects like his distinguished uncle. He has an office with J. A. Mitchell in the Esq. M. B. Brown, of Crofton, was sworn in as Deputy Sheriff yesterday and commenced work at once. He is a clever gentleman and will make an excellent officer.

Mr. Albert Kelly has moved into his elegant new dwelling on his farm near the city. It is a very commodious two-story building and presents a handsome appearance.

Drs. Seargent and Young have been notified to turn over their offices as pension examiners to their successors, Drs. Jackson and Southall, and the board will be reorganized to-morrow.

L. & N. will sell round trip tickets to Henderson, Ky., at one and one third fares on Aug. 24th, second at corner Stone Celebration, Baptist Church.

Mrs. Martha Jane Williamson is spending a short time with her sister, Mary Perkins, at Fairview, Ky. They had not seen each other for fourteen years, says the Princeton Banner.

The local optimists of Bowling Green have taken an appeal and will take the liquor question through the courts, but in the meanwhile the saloons will reopen and take their chances.

L. & N. will sell round trip tickets at one fare plus $2.00 to all principal points in Arkansas, Texas and Indian Territory, on Aug. 22nd, Sept. 12th and Oct. 10th, good returning 20 days from date of sale.

FOR SALE.—A cheap and most desirable six room cottage on a two acre lot situated on E. 7th St. near S. K. College. Present price $2,000. Possession will be given in 10 days. See Dr. M. W. Williams, over Bank of Hopkinsville.

The Third Regiment of State Guards broke camp at Bowling Green yesterday after a ten days' encampment and the First Regiment pitched its tents. Gov. Brown honored the Third Regiment with his presence Friday night at the Governor's Ball.

Forbes & Bro. have been running with a large extra force for several months, have about caught up with their contracts and dropped off 22 of their extra workmen Saturday. They expect to be able to handle their business with their regular force for the balance of the season.

The Union Tabernacle is now completed excepting the steeple, which is being put down this week. The dedication will take place sometime next month, as soon as Rev. Sam Jones can fix a date, and Mr. Jones has promised to return in November and hold a ten days' meeting.

Some of the local politicians went to Cereulean Saturday to interview Judge Grace in regard to his intentions concerning the race for appellate judge next year, but could get no satisfaction from him. The Judge was reticent and is evidently still halting between two opinions.

The Republican party is arranging to start up about Sept. 1st. James Rogers will be publisher, S. C. Mercer editor and Jas. C. Simmons foreman of the composing rooms. It will be issued weekly. The name, if determined upon, has not yet been made known. The office will be located over J. G. Hord's grocery, on Virginia street.

The Republican politicians are having trouble in getting Prof. Wm. Robinson off the track for school superintendent, in the interest of the candidate the ring has decided upon. Prof. Robinson is still prosecuting his canvass and may get the nomination. The matter will be settled in star chamber, the first Monday in September.

The Asylum contract for coal for the year beginning Sept. 1, 1893, was let August 18 to the McHenry Coal Co. at 7 cents for run of mines and 7 1/2 cents for mixed coal. This is a slight increase, the price now paid the same company being $6.00 per hundred bushels. There were six bids handed in, which were opened by the Contracts Committee and Steward at 12 o'clock Friday. A seventh bid was received through the post-office Saturday, too late to be considered. This, however, was considerably higher than several of those considered. The McHenry bid was the lowest, the next being that of the Crabtree mines, which was $7.10 for

CREAM OF NEWS.

Money Matters Improving.

The Hopkinsville tobacco market is again open.

Regular sales on the breaks will be resumed Wednesday, Aug. 23d, 1893.

The Hopkinsville Banks have made arrangements by which they can and will take and pay for all the New York exchange drawn to pay for Hopkinsville tobacco or wheat.

Heavy Damages Asked.

Suit for $10,000 damages against the Ohio Valley Railroad company has been filed in the Christian Circuit Court by Webster Davis, of Kelly station, for the killing of his son, Marion Davis, a brakeman in the employ of the company, who lost his life and was cremated in a wreck near Harding station, last June.

Died Very Suddenly.

Mr. James Long, formerly of Empire, died suddenly at his home in Providence Saturday. He was in his usual good health, apparently, a few minutes before he fell expiring instantly. Mr. Long was about 80 years old and leaves a wife and four small children. He was a very popular young man and had many friends, who will learn with regret of his sudden demise. The remains were buried at Empire Sunday afternoon.

The Rates Go Up.

The threatened advance in railroad rates to the World's Fair has been made and the following announcement was made yesterday by Agent Adams, at this place:

"Beginning Monday Aug. 21, round trip rates to Chicago will be $13.75 via Evansville and $15.45 to go and return via Louisville."

This increase will of course cause a general protest from those who have not yet visited the Fair.

Tobacco Sales Discontinued.

Owing to the scarcity of money and the embarrassed condition of business in general, the sales of tobacco upon the Hopkinsville Exchange were discontinued at the meeting of the Board last week, and will not be resumed until sufficient money or paper as good can be had to transact all legitimate business, which it is believed will be the case in a month or so. The growing crop is suffering greatly from the long, hot, dry spell, and if it does not rain soon the crop will be cut short fully one-third.

Reunion of Colored Veterans.

The colored veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic, of Southern Kentucky, held a reunion in this city Saturday. Members of the order were present from Paducah, Princeton, Bowling Green and Russellville, and the throng of visitors in attendance was estimated at several thousands. After services at Friendship Hall, the veterans, about 200 in line and headed by a band of music, marched to the large cedar grove in the eastern suburbs of the city, where speaking was indulged in, followed by a bountiful barbecued dinner.

Watermelon Thieves.

For some time past thieves have been stealing watermelons from the Asylum patch and Sunday night Attendants Bennett and Robinson secreted themselves near the patch and awaited developments. About 11 o'clock two negro thieves entered the patch and proceeded to fill up sacks with melons. Just as they finished this, the watchmen rose up and commanded them to hold up their hands and surrender. One of them did so and was captured. The other took to his heels and escaped, although several shots were fired at him. The man captured was Dave Pope. After making him carry the sack of melons to the Asylum, his captors took a pistol from him and brought him to town and put him in jail. He was tried yesterday and given terms in the work house for larceny and carrying a concealed weapon, aggregating in all 65 days. Pope refused to "give away" his partner who escaped, but the young men who begged the game have a pretty correct idea who the other man was and he will probably be run in also as soon as he can be located. A melancholy feature of Pope's sentence is that the watermelon season will be over when he gets out.

Excitement at Paducah.

The Paducah Visitor gives this account of a probable attempt at assault Saturday: "What is supposed to be another attempted assault by a negro man upon an eight-year-old white girl occurred yesterday forenoon at the residence of Mr. Ed Duffot, the market gardener, who resides about a half mile below the city, near the river. Duffot's little daughter was out in the back yard playing, when she heard the chickens making a noise in a cluster of high weeds in one corner of the yard. She went among the weeds to ascertain the cause of the unusual disturbance among the poultry, when she suddenly stumbled over a burly negro man lying prostrate on the ground among the weeds. He seized hold of her with a vicious grasp. She screamed loudly to her mother for assistance and the ruffian released his hold and ran away before she started and excited, mother could reach the scene. She found her little daughter in a fainting condition, and it was several moments before the latter recovered her presence of mind sufficiently to relate what had occurred."

A posse was quickly organized and pursuit made, but at last someone the negro had not been apprehended.

The report reached this city in a much exaggerated form. The case does not appear to demand the lynching of the intruder, who was probably trying to steal chickens, but the mob after him is in no humor for making nice distinctions and it caught the racial may be lynched.

MORROW CAPTURED.

The Slayer of McNeal Lodged Behind the Bars.

There was a ripple of excitement upon the streets late Thursday afternoon, when it became known that Charles Morrow, the colored brute who had murdered Fleming McNeal, colored, in South Christian, the previous Sunday, had been arrested upon the Tennessee River, in Lyon county, by a party of farmers, who seeing him came to the conclusion that he was a convict escaped from the Branch Penitentiary at Eddyville, for whose return a reward is offered.

His manner carried out this belief. He was on a raft to cross the river, when they drew their weapons and forced him to come ashore. He did so, and thinking from a consciousness of guilt, that they knew who he was, began explaining why he had killed McNeal. Had he kept quiet they would have taken him to Eddyville, and finding he was not their man, would have turned him loose. They at once secured him, and next morning he was put upon a horse, and guarded by five horsemen, carrying loaded pistols, was brought here. After some delay Thursday evening he was taken to jail. The crowd that gathered about the courthouse and jail was large and full of curiosity, but orderly and quiet.

Being brought before Judge Morrow, Friday morning, the prisoner waived an examining trial, and was taken back to jail, without bond, to await the action of the grand jury at circuit court next month. J. B. Allenworth was appointed by the judge to defend him.

The case is destined to become one of the most famous in the criminal annals of Christian county, as the deed was one of the most brutal.

It is pleasant to the taste and by acting gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels to cleanse the system effectually, it promotes the health and comfort of all who use it, and with millions it is the best and only remedy.

The Mammoth Clothing & Shoe Co.'s third weekly award of a free ticket to the World's Fair for the closest guess to the attendance last Saturday was won by Cal Dunkerson, col. of Gracey, who guessed 213,214, the correct number being 213,436.
